I LONG TO SEE MOTHER AT HOME

Zoramthanga

1. I long to see mother at home,
She is the only one that care for me;
By now and then I feel the wind,
That gentle calls me through the hills.

O Dear my son come home ^{with} shake my hand,
Or else we should in heaven meet;
And only blooming flowers are left,
That thou planted to console me.

2. O! Dear mother I love thee still,
Thou still abide in me through nights and day,
But dear mother it's my country,
That keeps and calls me here to stay.

The blood of dear my friends are calling me,
It is for you, O good mother;
It is for you O thou Zoram,
That I should live and die nobly.
